REVOLT SPREADS.

Strikers' Wrongs.

from Several Districts.

Minister of Interior Resieged With Re- It is wired for electric lighting. quests for Soldiers to Suppress Disorder Unable to Respond-Trouble I voccted to Grow When Winter Breaks Cities Peaceful Only Because Martial Dukes Forced to Keep in Retirement.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

St. PETERSBURG, March 11.-The anniversary of the freedom of the serfs a Twenty-two Women of the Race Form a week ago passed with outward quietness at St. Petersburg and other great centres, o suppose this to be an indication that and industrial centres. The Czar's hurriedly ision to allow the occasion to pass without demonstration, but it has not the slightrevolutionary movement in town and which has completely buffled Russia's Richmond. far famed secret police has been at work among the winterbound peasantry. Its agents have carried far and wide the story rising is foreseen at the end of winter when the roads will make it practicable.

It is already widespread in the provinces of Orel and Kursk, where the agitation time it has been daily increasing in magnitude. In these and other districts secret bureaucratic Government, itself, which has St. Petersburg, on the ground of political and there wasn't a man about the place. offences, large numbers of disaffected in the country. Under the leadership of cisions are made that the households of

An account which the Government permitted to be published in the Russki Viedomosti, says that the districts of Dmitrief nd boosk are pillaged nightly by large masses of peasantry. The granaries are plundered, estate buildings ransacked and forests out down. More than a dozen leading estates have been totally devastated. The magnates, and their dependents are panic stricken and have telegraphed to M. Bouliguine, the Minister of the Interior, asking him for troops, but he has a as yet been able to send only a few companies. The last fact alone is sufficient to show how desperate, from the authorities' point of view, is the internal situation of | Twelve Young Men Give Matinee Goers a

Because last Saturday and Sunday, contrary to the almost universal expectation, at St. Petersburg, Warsaw and Moscow, it must not be supposed that the situation in Russia has improved.

Never, as a matter of fact, during the past twelve months has the internal situation been worse. The rising in Orel and Kursk is still only in the initial stages. It may, moreover, be regarded as the be- yo ginning of a great peasant uprising when winter loosens its grip on the land. If sufficient troops cannot be spared to handle these present uprisings, which are the mere commencement of the movement, what will be the condition when they are demanded in a hundred other quarters?

peasants the authorities have not made ment in the cities. The great cities are still practically in a condition of martial law. Order to the move when he remarked:

"Ah, they're college blokes 'nitiatin' a couple of geezers into a secret society." the presence of large bodies of troops. There is not the slightest indication among the leaders of the workmen of giving up the contest or of the workmen falling away from the leaders. If the authorities still maintain external order by means of ter-Porism they in their turn are held in a state of terrorism by the people.

The Czar and the Dowager Czarina remain at Tsarskos-Selo. Of the three Grand Dukes to whom Russia owes so many neglect of her misfortunes, but one, Vladimir, remains. The bomb thrown at Moscow removed Sergius, and a week ago fear drove Alexis into luxurious exile. His secret flight was fittingly preceded the day before by that of his mistress, Baletta, an actress, either in a stage box or at the theatre on account of the reproaches and insults buried at her by the audience.

Latest Marine Intelligence. Arr.ved. Sa Mongollan, Glasgow, Feb. 24.

STONEBRIDGE ICE PALACE. Been a-Building in The Bronx Since December-Housewarming in It. The Stonebridge Ice Palace in The Bronx had a housewarming last night. Not lit-RUSSIAN Peasants Stirred by erally, but figuratively, because if the house had been warmed there wouldn't have been any house. The Ice Palace is the real thing, though it isn't ice and isn't a palace. It is a snow house of two 8x10 rooms, frozen inside and out with the help of a few pails of water.

CALL FOR MORE TROOPS. George E. Stonebridge of 4143 Park avenue, The Bronx, is the owner, architect and builder. He started in December with one room 7 feet high and big enough to hold ten persons. As it looked like a Riots and Pillaging Reported cold winter, he added to it until it reached its present proportions.

of solid ice, joined by an arch. The roof | name of Mme. Devere. slopes like an Esquimaux hut. The entrance is only a little hole, but there is room inside.

As spring is about to break, Mr. Stonebridge gave his housewarming last night, changing the regular order of events by holding the ceremony to celebrate the finish. not the beginning of the house. Refrigerated refreshments were served, and, as Law Is in Force-Czar and the Grand the local newspaper of The Bronx will inform the world this morning, "games were indulged in and a good time was enjoyed

NEGRO DEPARTMENT STORE.

Corporation in Richmond, Va. RICHMOND, Va., March 11.-Headed by but there could be no greater mistake than Maggie L. Walker, a negro who is president of St. Luke's Bank, a flourishing institution Russia's myriads of peasantry are not of Richmond, twenty-two negro women deeply affected by the movement which | to-day secured a charter from the Corporahas achieved its first results in the urban | tion Commission and will at once open a big store to be known as St. Luke's Emporium. The authorized capital of the company is ssued rescript may have induced the de- $25,000, but it is the purpose to largely increase it if the venture is successful. The shares are $10 each, and all of them est effect in checking the progress of the are being purchased by negroes. While one or two men are on the board of directors and a man, Joseph N. Meyers, is vice-president, the whole business practically is in the For many months past an organization | hands of women, and all of them live in

The head of the business, Maggie L. Walker, has been a leading figure in the business world here for some time. Under her guidance St. Luke's Bank has become a flourishof St. Petersburg, of the sufferings and ing institution and the negroes are being efforts and achievements of the working- trained to save their money and to deposit it men of the cities. Their efforts have been regularly. The women connected with the fruitful, and now a widespread peasant new store are the wives and daughters of leading negro residents, many of whom own property and have comfortable bank

FLABBERGASTED BURGLARS began openly a fortnight ago, since which | Break Into Factory at Night and Confront 25 Girls-Run for It.

agents have been succeeded by even more factory, on the fourth floor of 41 West Seven- office, but Mrs. Chadwick did not look at potent preachers of the gospel of freedom, | teenth street, worked late last night on a | him These have been actually provided by the rush job. The curtains were down, so rest of the building was dark and deserted. been deporting from the cities, especially The foreman had gone out for a few minutes ou're dreamin'

wenty-five skirts were egitated violently.
"Rats! I b'lieve it is!" cried Jen, and imped for the table. It set them off in a unch. They all jumped and screamed, ist as the door opened, and two men rrying a bar and a jimmy stood in the

The burglars were just as scared as the irls, though they didn't scream so loud my burglar would be scared if he started to open a deserted factory door with a jimmy at 10 P. M. and met twenty-five girls face to face. For a moment they contemplated the scene, and then ran for it.
They butted through the skylight and scurried off by the roof.
Policeman White heard the screams and ran up the stairs. He was too late,

ONLY THEIR RIG CRAZY.

Treat-Just 'Nitiatin'.

Patrolling up and down the west side of Twenty-third to Forty-second streets were two young men followed at a distance by and quietness continue to be maintained pansive grins. The two young men in the pansive grins. The two young men in the lead didn't smile. They looked serious—also ridiculous. One of them wore an infant's white cap decorated with bright red roses. In his mouth was stuck a very big black cigar. His companion wore a straw hat with a green band and long green streamers. Each ear was covered with an empty tobacco bag. This young man puffed at a dingy clay pipe. Outside of their headgear and a few other frills, both young men were dressed normally.

They appeared on Broadway at Fortysecond street when the streets were crowded second street when the streets were crowded with matines goers. Every one stopped to rubber at them. Soon after they started their march, the two men in the lead began to hand out small printed cards to every-

"We are not crazy, even if we look it." None of the paraders voluntered any explanation of why they were so diligently With a prospect such as this among the engaged in attracting attention to themelocasants the authorities have not made selves, but it wasn't hard to guess who they were. A newsboy sized them up

law, Order is maintained, but only by DR. A. J. ROYLE SENT TO JAIL. Harvard Medical Graduate Pleads Guilty

to Stealing Library Books. Boston, March 11 .- Dr. Alfred J. Boyle, aged 34, a graduate of the Harvard medical school, was arrested in Providence yester-day and to-day was sentenced to four months in the House of Correction for stealing three books from the Boston Public Library last steal the books. He took them out and neglected to return them, he said. They were books on medical subjects.

According to the police, Boyle is the only son of a well to do Bostom family. After graduating from the medical school he practised in Boston for a while, and then became head surgeon of a Naw Bedicard he perital surgeon of a New Bedford hospital. What it was that started him on the wrong path is not known, but in 1901 he was who for weeks has been unable to appear either in a stage box or at the theatre on police on a charge of having burglar

DEWEY'S PORT WINE AND GRAPE JUICE know who the orpha robbed, **

MRS. CHADWICK FOUND GUILTY

SHE MAKES A SCENE WHILE BE-ING RETURNED TO JAIL.

Goes Into Hysterics and Struggles With Her Guards-Shouts to Her Son That

CLEVELAND, March 11 .- Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was found guilty at 8:30 o'clock to-night in the Federal Court of conspiring main arrangements for the enterprise by to wreck the Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin. The jury had been out five hours. She will probably become an inmate of

Mrs. Chadwick, owing to her deafness, could not hear the words of Clerk W. F. After the reading was completed, Judge Francis J. Wing, her attorney, turned to see. Norway. her and announced the result. He simply

During the reading of the verdict Mrs. Chadwick leaned upon the arm of her son, bears, capturing two polar bear cubs. I Emil. When Judge Wing told her the result she burst into tears. Emil tried to besides my valet and the crew. We shall her side should anything serious occur. In a few minutes the woman dried her yes with her handkerchief and lifted her MRS. FRAWLEY GETS A DIVORCE. head from the trial table. Deputy Marshals Clobitz and Wagner stepped to her side and escorted her from the court room without objections. Emil walked by her side and assisted her.

Outside the court room in the hall way Mrs. Chadwick began to grow weak and would have fallen to the floor had she not been caught by the deputies. In an instant her mood changed and she grew hysterical, endeavoring to break away from the of-

"Oh Emil, Emil! How can I ever look you in the face again!" she wailed in her struggles. "I am not guilty; I am not guilty!" she shouted. "Let me go; let me go, I say! I am not guilty!"

The woman's strength grew with her frenzy, and it required the effort of several deputies to control her. At this time the elevator arrived and Emil stooping down placed his shoulder under his mether's arm and half carried her into it. She was taken to the office of United States Marshal Chandler on the next floor below. There Emil, the two nurses and Judge Wing attempted to quiet her.

In the marshal's office she was again in hysterics, but was finally quieted. She was taken to the elevator. As she walked along the corridor she passed United States District Attorney Sullivan, who happened girl cloak makers of J. C. Hirsch's to be standing in the doorway to his own the lights didn't show on the street, and the for the defence made a motion for a new trial and arguments will be heard on it Monday or Tuesday. The maximum sentence for the crime on the seven counts "What's that, Mame?" suddenly cried on which Mrs. Chadwick was convicted rushing up and down the tracks of the ing young fellow of about twenty-four,

Mrs. Chadwick was convicted n't!" responded Jen in a shivering spiracy to have checks certified by the offi- of exertion. cials of a national bank when she had no . The locomotive, which is used to haul the case. funds or credit in the bank, to the hazard | meat from the stock yards each morning, against her will probably be nolle prossed. the cab and opened the throttle. The > her for forgery of the Carnegie notes. an opportunity to try her upon this charge. and started the engine south, Unless the motion for a new trial is granted the penitentiary.

The next step in the case will doubtless Chadwick's husband, in the Common Pleas | telescoped and wrecked. Court on the indictment in which he and his wife are charged jointly with the forgery of the $5,000,000 Carnegie note, which was held as security by Iri Reynolds. He may be tried alone. Mrs. Chadwick may become a witness. Andrew Carnegie would also be called as a witness in the

to play on the feelings of the jury marked a serious demonstration, and because order | ten others. The faces of the ten wore ex- | the closing day of the trial. For over two hours Attorney Dawley talked eloquently for Mrs. Chadwick. He was followed by District Attorney Sullivan, who made the closing argument. Judge Tayler delivered his charge to the jury, which retired at 3:30 o'clock this afternoo

For the first time since her trial began Mrs. Chadwick did not have a cheery smile this morning for her attorneys when she came into court. Emil Hoover was there before his mother arrived and the greeting between mother and son was cordial. Mrs. Chadwick threw her arms about the neck of her boy, and as she kissed him the tears

The indictment against Mrs. Chadwick originally contained sixteen counts. Upon a motion on Thursday the Judge struck out two of these counts. In his charge he struck out seven more, leaving only seven counts against the prisoner.

When Mr. Dawley mentioned in his speech the name of Emil Hoover, Mrs. Chadwick lost her composure completely and, burying her face in her handkerchief, wept.

"You, sir," said Dawley, his face white, his index finger pointed directly at the District Attorney, "are almost as much of a coward as Adam himself, the greatest coward the world ever knew. He selected a sweet woman as his wife and agreed and promised to care for and protect her through life. What did he do? He ate the forbidden apple and then blamed it all on the woman. Why, she should have sued him for divorce November.

Boyle pleaded guilty, but said by way of extenuation that he had not intended to asked for the Garden of Eden as alimony. Why don't you have the bank officer here than the said. They to explain his acts and his conduct in this case? No, it is easier to blame it upon a woman. This was the easiest way out of it. Mr. Sullivan in his argument arraigned Mrs. Chadwick bitterly, but she never flinched. Speaking of Beckwith, Spear and the Oberlin bank, Sullivan said. the Oberlin bunk, Sullivan said:

"There is no evidence that she ever had any wealth except the wealth of power that she had over men—this personal mag-netism, hypnotism, occult influence—some netism, hypnotism, occult influence—some power that God himself only knows the name of. Beckwith is dead. Two others are sick, and a suspended bank! Do you know what that means? The widows and the orphans whose all was there have been

TO GO ON A POLAR HUNT.

Col. Max Fleischmann to Start Next Year for Big Game in the Far North.

mann, millionaire bachelor, clubman, automobilist and partner with his brother. Mayor Julius Fleischmann, in the racing stable as well as the Fleischmann liquor interests, will make in the summer of 1906 She is Innecent Jury Was Out Four a dash toward the Pole with the hope of Hours Convicted on Seven Counts. reaching the farthest north point. He will also attempt to make a new record as a hunter of the big game of that region.

Col. Fleischmann has just completed the chartering a steamer for the long voyage. "Yes, I am going to the very north on an exploring and hunting expedition, the Ohio Penitentiary, where she served said Col. Fleischmann to-day. "I have The rooms are divided by two pillars several years ago for forgery under the chartered for the purpose the steamer Laura. She was formerly a whaling vessel, but has been remodelled for Arctic sporting trips. She is about 190 feet long Carleton, who read the verdict of the jury. and very strongly built. The vessel is owned by Capt. Magnus Glavver of Trom-

"Capt. Glavver took two German noblemen and their guests on a similar trip last summer. They were quite successful and killed some walrus and about a dozen polar comfort her. Judge Wing endeavored leave one year from next May. We exto have her cease her sobbing. Two trained pect to reach Tromsoe about June 1, so as nurses from St. Alexis Hospital were at to start as soon as the ice breaks and work our way among the floating ice."

Mysterious New York Woman in South

Dakota Obtains Her Decree. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 11 .- The granting of a divorce by Judge Gaffy, while holding a term of State Circuit Court in Hughes county, to Marion Morris Frawlev of New York has revived interest in the soon learned that he was dressing and plaintiff, who was the mysterious member of the divorce colony of this city.

supposed to be the wife of State Senator | with pawnbrokers all over the city. James J. Frawley of New York. That man, however, has positively denied ever being married. Last January, when it was discovered that the woman who was supposed to be his wife was in Sloux Falls, he issued a statement that he never was married and that this story of his having a wife was often repeated as the work of per-

Nevertheless, the woman in the ques ion got a divorce from James J. Frawley, the also got the custody of her infant child, out the father has the privilege, if he wishes, see the child once each week

After procuring her decree, Mrs. Frawley left for Buffalo, where her parents reside and where it is understood she will make er home in the future. The fact that she nstituted her divorce suit in a county in the interior of the State and on the fringe of a settlement indicates that she desired to prevent knowledge of her suit becom-artisans and students.

Stranger Takes a Ride in an Engine Sends It Back Alone.

Thus, an unsuccessful attempt to weaken the movement in the cities has strengthened it in the country. Under the leadership of

of the depositors and stockholders of the was standing on the spur at Ninety-first bank. She was convicted under Section street under full steam. The men of the 5440 of the Revised Statutes of the United | crew were in the roundhouse preparing for States. The other six Federal indictments | their early run when a stranger jumped into There are three cases, each charging engine went speeding down the tracks. forgery, in the Common Pleas Court against | At Parkside the engine stopped, the mysterious man alighted, but before jumping County Prosecutor Keeler will not have | from the cab threw open the throttle again

The police and the awakened residents Mrs. Chadwick will be taken directly to watched the return of the locomotive. It came home faster than it went and only stopped when it struck another engine at be the trial of Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick, Mrs. Ninety-third street. Both engines were

HE WILL TAKE SIX MONTHS. Nicely Dressed Young Fellow Wants to Dodge the Demon Rum.

A tall, good looking young man, correctly dressed, entered the Tenderloin station ast night. Sergt. Wilson looked up from the desk, expecting to take a complaint of a residence burglary. "I have an enemy," said the young man. "Well," said the Sergeant, "who's your "Myself!" was the answer. "I'm my own worst enemy. Drink's the matter with me. I want to be locked up."

"What good would that do?" asked the 'The shock," said the young man, "would have a salutary effect. I've been at it eight years now. I'm east out by a good family.

I've lost everything, and I want to be "All right," said the sergeant, "what's your name and address?" "My name is Leon Stewart. At least that's the name I go under, but I haven't any address."

"I suppose you are aware." said the sergeant, "that if you're arraigned in the police court without any address you stand a chance of going to the Island for six months

The young man pondered awhile.
"Weil," he said, "that would be rather more drastic than I thought. But I suppose six months away from liquor would do me good, and I'm a pretty desperate case. I guess, we'll let it go at that. No address."

He was locked up. The sergeant wasn't sure last night whether it was remorse or a fraternity initiation.

MONEY NO USE TO HIM. Police Rescue an Amiable Chap Who Seattered Bills and Coins in the Street.

A well dressed man with a grin on his face steadied himself by a lamppost at Glenmore avenue and Osborn street, East New York, early last evening while he delved down in his pockets and scattered small change and tills among several dozen children who scrambled and re on the sidewalk. Some of the bills the man had torn into fragments.

Policeman Newman came along, got ogether what remained, in all $3.45 and a that he had been having a good time and that money was of no value to him. He said he was Herbert Harvey, a builder, 28 years old, of 133 Liberty avenue. He

GOULD BROKAW FIRE ARREST

CINCINNATI, March 11.—Col. Max Fleisch- CARETAKER JOHNSON ACCUSED OF ARSON AND THEFT.

Owner of Madison Ave. House Missed Things That Wouldn't Burn, and Man Dressed Too Well-Servant Girl's Life Endangered-Auto Trophies Recovered.

The mystery of the fire which on Feb. 21 damaged W. Gould Brokaw's house at 774 Madison avenue to the extent of $5,000, was cleared up last night, the police said, when they arrested Oscar S. Johnson, who was a caretaker at the house. Johntectives Bonser and Maguire of the East Sixty-seventh street station house on a double charge of grand larceny and arson in the second degree. The first charge was preferred by Mr. Brokaw; the second by Deputy Fire Marshal Herman W. de Malignon

Mr. Brokaw was in Florida and the only occupant of the house when the fire was discovered was a maid, Katy Breder, who was asleep on the fourth floor and was overcome by the smoke when Policeman Mooney of the East Sixty-seventh street station rescued her. Two hours after the fire, Johnson turned up, apparently much surprised at what had happened.

At the time it was believed that the fire had started from short circuited wires on the second floor. Suspicion was first aroused when Mr. Brokaw returned a few days after the fire and found many things missing which could not possibly have been ourned. He at first placed l'inkerton detec tives on the case, but, as their reports showed no progress, he appealed to Capt.

Hogan, who got to work promptly. The detectives suspected Johnson and spending money far beyond his apparent means. They followed him for While a resident of Sioux Falls she was | days and discovered that he had dealings

They arrested Johnson last night and then visited the pawnshops, where they gathered in the following:

Eight for automobile coats, twelve silver trophy cups, won by Mr. Brokaw in automo-bile races and inscribed with his name; ten suits of clothes, twelve fancy ball costumes, including some valuable Japanese kimonos, and a large quantity of silver spoons.

The loot altogether is valued by Mr. Brokaw at $10,000 or more. When arraigned in the station house Johnson, acsaid that on the morning of the fire he went ile of papers with kerosene and set fire nace, and awaited results. Johnson adnitted that he knew of the maid's presence in the house and the danger he was placing her in; but he seemed to care little about it. He told the police that he had been stealing from the house during Mr. Brokaw's ab-After the verdict was announced counsel WADL A LOCOMOTIVE RUN AWAY, sence, and realizing that detection was ertain he tried to cover his thefts by burning the house Johnson had been in Mr. Brokaw's em-CHICAGO, March 11 .- A runaway engine ploy for over two years. He is a good look-

Mr. Brokaw refused last night to discuss

GIRL ARTIST'S PLIGHT. Raggs Left Her Like Flora McFilmsy Until the Court Relented.

Miss Estelle Huntington Huggin has a studio on the third floor of 57 West sketches and lots of pictures in it, appeared the Yorkville court yesterday against Arthur Harding of 517 West Twenty-seventh street, alias Robert Raggs, whom she chased box which Raggs abducted from the studio was on the desk in front of Magistrate Ommen. The pawntickets and keys found held for trial in $1,000 bail. "Give the box to the property clerk," said | day the Court, and one of the clerks started to standing near could see that not all the clothes it contained were black. "No, don't! don't!" exclaimed Miss Huggins, "why, all the clothes I've got, except what I have on, are in there. "Well, madame, we have to retain the viction." replied the Court.

"This is Lent, you know, and you won't be going to many parties, so you won't need them, will you?" asked the Magistrate.

-To Hunt Lions in Colorado. WASHINGTON, March 11. - President guest of the Denver Chamber of Commerce | Frederick Hayes of 480 Eighth avenue. at a banquet proposed to be given in his visit to Colorado.

The President expects to leave here on April 7 for San Antonio, Tex., where he will stiend the reunion of First Volunteer Cavalry, and from there he will go to westcavary, and from there he will go to west-ern Colorado to huni mountain lions. After his hunt is over he will be at the disposal of his Denver hosts for a date to be fixed when his schedule is definitely arranged.

CACHE THAWS OUT. Stolen Jewelry Found After the Ice Had

Detective Hayes of the West 125th street station dug up yesterday afternoon from under a rock near Lenox avenue and 110th dreet several pieces of jewelry which had been stolen on Dec. 22 by twelve-year-old Frederick Hartman from the apartments of Jules House, at 137 West 110th street. The collection included a pearl necklace, a bracelet to match, a gold and pearl brooch and several rings. The boy when arrested told where the jewelry was and the detec-tives went there at the time, but the place was buried under ice. Yesterday Hayes got the stuff.

FLORIDA, ASHEVILLE, PINEHURST. THE SEABOARD FLORIDA LIMITED maintains quickest schedule in both directions between New York and St. Augustine. A superb train leaving New York every day at 12:25 noon. Offices 1183 Bloodwey.—445

AMEEN, AUGUSTA AND SUMMERVILLE.

Best reached by the Sou hern Ry. the route of the Southern's Palm Limited, N. Y. Offices 271 & 1188 Rwav.—Adx.

Injured by the accidental explosion of a burglar alarm of his own invention, John Stevens, 65 years old, a resident of Mariner's Harbor, Staten Island, will probably lose the sight of one eye. There have recently been a number of ourglaries in Mariner's Harpor and vicinity, and Stevens set himself to invent an apparatus that would awaken him in case an attempt should be made unlawfully to enter his house. He finished his invention last evening and had it in position at one of the windows. On the inside sill of the window stood a cartridge from which a wire extended to the top of the window, where it was attached to a heavy weight. The apparatus was so arranged that the raising of the window sash would cause the weight to fall on the cartridge and explode it by last evening Stevens went outside the house to see if his contrivance could be seen from the outside. While he was peering through the window his young daughter, Mabel, not knowing the exact condition of affairs. Freezing Over of the Run River Advanced raised the sash from the inside. The weight fell and the cartridge exploded. Stevens fell, after receiving a blast of powder in his face.

striking on the cap.

Much of the powder entered his left eye and a doctor who was called to attend him said that the sight would in all probability be destroyed. Some of the powder grains entered the right eye, but the doctor says it is not permanently injured.

NEGROES KEPT FROM THEATRE. Four Leave the Hudson Threatening to Make More Trouble. Four negroes presented orchestra tickets at the Hudson Theatre last night. The doorkeeper held them up and referred the matter to Sam Wallack of the house staff, who firmly refused them admittance. The negroes exchanged their tickets for ash at the box office and went away, threatening to make trouble.

EQUITABLE MUTUALIZATION. Company's Committee Said to Have Divided

4 to 3. In spite of reports that the committee of seven having in charge the mutualization of the Equitable Life Assurance Society were coming together, it was said in Wall Street yesterday that the committee stood 3 to 4, with Mr. Alexander, Mr. Tarbell ording to Capt. Hogan, confessed. He and Cornelius N. Bliss advocating full mutualization and Mr. Hyde and his assoto a closet on the second floor, saturated a ciates opposed to this, but reluctant to bring in a majority report under such conditions. to it. Then he went to a house on Fifth Mr. Alexander is understood to have said to-day avenue where he had charge of the fur- at Friday's meeting that "every policyholder | must have a vote. The bill under preparation for the Crimmins committee will probably be made public to-morrow. It is understood to call directly for the mutualization of the Equitable, providing that at every to the same number of prisoners. He meeting for the election of directors each policyholder and each holder of a share of stocks shall be entitled to one vote.

ABROAD IN THE ALTOGETHER. to France that she is willing to negotiate Demented Italian Caught Running Nude for peace.

even wear socks to keep his feet warm. turned into Newark avenue and hotfooted different to the news from the seat of war. ball expert would and steered him into a taken into the hallway by a small boy, the prisoner was taken to the Second pre- the east would nearly complete the entire station wrapped in blankets. He envelopment of Gen. Kurop kin's forces. quieted down after awhile and said he was Leonardi Mulgroni of Mulberry street.

pick it up. The cover fell off, and a few WORK STOPPED ON WARSHIP, and the Russian casualties are known

ceeding His Appropriation. ment attached to the Naval Appropria-tion bill passed by Congress, which ab-solutely prohibited any Government officer from expending anything more than his appropriation. Accordingly when "Yes, but I must have some of the clothes," was the reply.

"Well," replied the Judge to the clerk, "let her have part of them, but don't open the box in here. Some of us might blush."

The fair artist made her selections in the Magistrate's room.

"Accordingly when than his appropriation. Accordingly when the naval appropriation began to run low it was necessary to stop work somewhere.

It is probable that the work on the training ship Intreplied at the Mare Island yard will be stopped within a few days and possibly also on the battleship Connecticut, building at the New York Navy Yard. The it was necessary to stop work somewhere.

It is probable that the work on the training ship Intrepid at the Mare Island yard will be stopped within a few days and possibly also on the battleship Connecticut,

PRESIDENT'S SOUTHERN TRIP, WOMAN BADLY HURT BY AUTO, rear guard of the centre, which broke at He Expects to Start for Texas on April 7 | Driver Hayes Had No License-Woman Too Ill to Go to Court.

The accident occurred as Mrs. Bender charge of assault and running an would be unable to appear in court | The slaughter was terrible.

RUSSIAN CONSUL ROBBED. Representative at Chicago Loses a Watch

That the Czar Gave Him. CHICAGO, March 11.-Baron von Schlippenbach, Russian Consul in Chicago, was | where it is now annihilating the Russians robbed to-day of a $200 gold watch given | who are retreating from the south. him by the Czar Nicholas II. He was rid-ing on a North State street trolley car when he was robbed.

The Consul was standing on the rear wiped out completely, all being killed or platform in a crowd, At Erie street partorm in a crowd, at the street several men got on, and the Consul was pushed and jostled about for a minute. A short time afterward he discovered that his watch was gone. The matter was re-ported to the central police, but no trace of the watch or thieves has been found.

Bohn's Laxatives keep the human machine in perfect condition. No disco forts - Age.

BY HIS OWN BURGLAR ALARM. RUSSIAN LOSS FULLY 150,000.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Kuropatkin Says Remnant of His Broken Army Has Escaped.

VICTORS KEEP UP CHASE.

After he had everything in proper place Japanese Rammering Soft Flanks of the Retreating Forces.

by Kuropatkin as an Fxcuse for His Defeat -Three Hundred Guas Fall Into the Hands of Oyama - Victorious General Congratulated by the Mikada -Russian Troops Greatly Exhausted and Terribly Out to by the Pursuin't Foe-In Face of Thorough Defeat Russia Denies Making Peace Overture.

Special Cable Desputches to THE SUN. St. Petesseuro, March 11.-The Czar as received a telegram from Gen. Kuropatkin, timed 6 o'clock Friday night, which reads as follows:

"The retreat of the army was very dangerous and especially trying for those corps which were some distance from the Mandarin road. The Japanese penetrated far into the mountains in the direction of Tawan.

"They threatened our troops, but thanks to extraordinary efforts our armies are "The enemy cannonaded the route of our retreat from the east to the west. The eastern Mandarin road was bombarded at two points, near Tawan and Pusho. Our troops were very brave.

so easily from the south is that the Hunho, which covered our position, is frozen over "Gen. Zerpitsky is wounded, but re-

"The reason why the Japanese advanced mains at the front." It was said in military circles this evening that Gen. Kuropatkin had lost about 60,000 in killed and wounded in addition has also lost about 300 guns. The Foreign Office has issued a denial of the statement that Russia has intimated

Through Shocked Jersey City Streets, There was little in the appearance of the An Italian caused a commotion in Jersey streets to-day to suggest that a great dis-City yesterday morning by sprinting along aster had befallen Russian arms. It being the streets in holiday attire, apparently in-

TORIO, March 11.-It is announced at hallway to prevent him from getting cold. military headquarters that at 11 o'clock The Italian fought desperately and couldn't | last night the extreme right wing of the be coaxed to put on his clothes, which were Japanese army, a part of Gen Kuroki's command, had reached Huiyuang, five Pennsylvania Railroad trestie at Bruns- miles north of Fushun, and that the pursuit Flannigan sent for the patrol wagon, and arrival of a flanking force at this point on

It is reported here that only 50,000 of New York. His brother assured the police | the Russians who were defending Mukden on Raggs were also in evidence. He was he was suffering from a harmless kind of have escaped to Tieling. Already the ementia. He was sent home later in the capture of 20,000 prisoners has been reported by the Japaness commanders, to be considerably above 100,000. The Naval Bill Probibits Any Officer From Ex- Russians had in the battle 376 battalions of infantry, 178 squadrons of cavalry and Washington, March 11.—Orders were sent out from the Navy Department today to Boston stopping the work on the Gen. Kuropatkin's army consisted of 300,800 stolen goods in order to obtain a con- training ship Cumberland, which is under infantry, 26,700 cavalry and 1,388 guns. construction at the Boston Navy Yard. The total number of the Japanese forces "Must you have them all?" asked the The reason for this move is the amend- is not stated, but it is vaguely estimated

perior force of Russians on the heights

TROOPS GREATLY EXHAUSTED. The army of the Sha Raver, having driven Magistrate's room.
"I wonder what that thief thought he was getting," remarked the prison matron who supervised the process.

Magistrate's room.

The possibly also on the battleship Connecticut, building at the New York Navy Yard. The amendment to the Naval bill made an officer liable to dismissal if he should exceed his appropriation. Russians were apparently the wreck of the noon yesterday.

The report describes this portion of the Mrs. Lydia Bender of 460 Eighth avenue Russian forces as a greatly exhausted and Roosevelt to-day accepted the invitation was knocked down and severely injured utterly demoralized mob, fleeing from the of Senator Patterson of Colorado to be the last night by an automobile driven by Japanese shells and filling the district east of Mukden.

t a banquet proposed to be given in his period of the expected was crossing Eighth avenue near Thirty-seventh street late in the evening. She was attempting to regain was attended by Dr. Dingman of Roosevelt a semblance of formation in the district Hospital and sent home in a cab. Haves was arrested and locked up in the West Thirty-seventh street police station on a Russian army assembled only to receive the concentrated fire of Japanese infantry auto without a driver's license.

Mrs. Bender was so badly injured that her husband went to the station house with a note from her doctor stating that

HAMMERING THE BEATEN ARMY.

Toward sunset yesterday a Japanese flying column from the south pushed across the triangular field of battle, reaching the Pu River, thirteen miles north of Mukden, Mukden two Russian army corps were captured. The operations of the extreme left of Other reports say that southwest of the Japanese army are not reported offi-Quickest Line to Cleveland.

Leave New York 5-32 P. M., arrive Cleveland.

7:15 next morning, Cincinnati 1:30 P. V. indianapoils 5:30 P. M., 3t. Louis 9:45 P. M., by .ew York Central. Fine Service. No excess fard—Adv.